Re: United States v. Alvino Fountain
21 Cr. 421 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

This is an application to adjourn the sentencing proceedings for approximately two or three weeks. The sentencing is currently set for February 11, 2022. Sara Willette, the probation officer assigned to prepare the PSR, says that her due date for the final report is January 31, 2022. According to the Court's sentencing schedule, my sentencing memorandum is due on January 28, 2022. (Dkt. 35) Please note that I will be out-of-state February 23-26, 2022.

The defense timely objected to some findings in the Draft PSR on January 6, 2022. It would make sense for my sentencing memorandum to refer to the cited paragraphs of the Final, not the Draft, PSR.

Mr. Fountain, who is detained, will not be prejudiced by the delay as --no matter which sentencing range the Court selects-- he is facing a substantial term of imprisonment.

The government consents to the requested adjournment.

APPLICATION GRANTED
SO ORDERED:

Vincent L. Briccetti, U.S.D.J.

Dated: 1/26/22
White Plains, NY

Very truly yours,

/s/ Richard D. Willstatter
